Adoration & The Blessed Sacrament

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 13, 2024

Dear Friends in Christ,

On the night before he died, Jesus gathered around him the Twelve who had followed him during his public ministry. They had witnessed the signs that no one else had ever seen; they heard his words about the Kingdom of God, which was even then being inaugurated. But on that night, gathered in a large, furnished upper room, Jesus anticipated and mysteriously began his own Passover by instituting the Eucharistic mystery, in which he handed on to the Church for all time his own body and blood, the “perpetual memorial of his passion and death.”

Priests have the awesome and solemn duty of serving as custodians of the Eucharist. In fact, the proper stewardship of the mysteries which Christ handed on to the Church is one of the duties we promise to carry out on the day of ordination. This letter is written in this spirit and in recognition of the many graces that are pouring out across our country thanks to the Eucharistic Revival, which has taken place, including the Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis this summer.

We have an incomparable treasure in our parish church; Christ dwells at all times among his people in the Blessed Sacrament. Our adoration chapel allows people to pray before the Blessed Sacrament almost all week, which is a beautiful gift I wish to continue and extend to the entire week. At this point, an important point should be made: Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is something we can and should do whenever the consecrated hosts are present in the Tabernacle, often indicated by the presence of a burning candle. Exposition—either in the ciborium or in the monstrance—is by its nature a more solemn and, therefore, more public celebration of the Eucharistic presence of the Lord by a gathered assembly of the faithful. Sometimes, these terms are conflated, as if one cannot adore the Eucharistic Lord unless the consecrated host is exposed in the monstrance. That is simply not true.

The practice of extended exposition of the Blessed Sacrament is a uniquely special gift that, by its nature, involves an entire community. Even if, as is to be anticipated, large numbers of people cannot be present for this form of adoration at every moment, nevertheless, both as an expression of its corporate reality and for reasons of safety and avoidance of desecration, there must always be a few people there at all times when exposition is taking place. The Church has laid down clearly that exposition may not occur unless at least two people are present. In addition, during Pope

St. John Paul II's papacy, it was made clear that "the Most Holy Sacrament, when exposed, must never be left unattended even for the briefest space of time. It should therefore be arranged that at least some of the faithful always be present at fixed times, even if they take alternating turns" (Instruction Redemptionis sacramentum 138).

Reverence for the Eucharist means acknowledging and following the liturgical laws of the Church who is the guardian of the Church's tradition.

Over the course of my first few months here, it has happened more frequently than I would like that I have come into the chapel and found no one there.

This situation is at odds with both the spirit and the letter of the liturgical laws on this. When this happened, I spent a few minutes in the chapel.

Then, if no one arrives, I repose the Blessed Sacrament, which eventually creates confusion when someone wanders into the chapel and expects the Blessed Sacrament to be exposed.

To rectify this, I am asking all of you, our parish adorers, to re-commit yourselves to this ministry. Specifically, this commitment consists of:

- 1) spending one hour of adoration weekly (or additional hours if desired),
- 2) ensuring that a replacement is available if you are unable to make your scheduled time,
- 3) always signing in and out so we have a log of who has been in the chapel,
- 4) always remain in adoration during your designated time, even if another Mass or liturgy is taking place in the church.

We are asking for a six-month (re-)commitment, and of course, we would be delighted if you would choose to re-commit again after six months.

We will reach out to you again as it gets closer to the six-month mark.

Please sign the acknowledgment, including which adoration hours you are committing to, using the QR code to link to the electronic form and submit it to me by Friday, October 18th. Or, you can drop off a hard copy of the form to the parish office or rectory, which are available in the entrance to adoration.

As you know, we need a minimum of two adorers per hour in order to continue to offer solemn exposition in the monstrance at that time. Therefore, please encourage your friends and family to make this beautiful commitment as well, which they will not regret! At the same time, rest assured that while we work to secure two adorers for each hour, the chapel will remain open for adoration all week, even if exposition in the monstrance needs to be temporarily paused at certain times of the day.

I am grateful for your prayerfulness and your embrace of this critical ministry. May the Lord grant you peace!

JOIN! WALKING WITH PURPOSE

A spiritual journey awaits you!

This fall, Walking With Purpose (WWP) joyfully offers several transformative Bible series options for those who want to know Christ more deeply through the Scriptures and expand in harmony with other women of all ages and experiences.

They are Opening Your Heart (for those new to WWP) on Tuesdays at 9:30 AM, or Living in the Father's Love on Tuesdays at 9:30 AM. The new season begins this week.

To learn more or sign up, visit our page under the ministry tab on the parish website, or email us at WWP@stmarymagdalen.net.

NEW! THE LEGION OF MARY TUESDAYS AT 9:30 AM

How Does It Work?

Our members meet weekly to pray, plan, and discuss as a group. Then, we go out in pairs to perform Spiritual Works of Mercy within our parish and local community under the guidance of a Spiritual Director, usually a priest or deacon. We call all Catholics who would like to draw closer to Jesus and His Mother to give the Legion a try.

How Do I Start?

Be a guest at our meeting! We invite you to come and see the Legion from the inside—if you wish, you can go as our guest on one of the work assignments with an experienced member. All you need is a willingness to offer a little of your time and energy for the most significant reason in the world—your love of God!

Meetings are every Tuesday at 9:30 AM in our Gathering Room.

Mary, Our Lady, Queen of Angels, pray for us!

ALL AROUND SMM

NEW! ANNUAL COAT DRIVE
SMM STEWARDSHIP PROGRAM
OCTOBER 1 TO OCTOBER 15

*Are you cleaning out your closets?
Do you have a few extra coats to donate?*

St. Mary Magdalen School's Annual Coat Drive is the perfect way to help those needing coats this fall. The Drive runs from October 1 to October 15. Bins are available in the church narthex and school gym vestibule. Bring gently used or new coats to donate to CityTeam, a national organization with a chapter in Philadelphia whose mission is to share Christ's unconditional and redemptive love by caring for immediate needs and enabling lasting solutions.

We are grateful for your support!

NEW! VIRTUE=STRENGTH

As we begin October, our PREP and School students, along with our parish community, will focus on God's gift to us in the virtue of hope. What is hope?

It was infused in our souls at Baptism and gives us the strength to firmly trust that God will provide. Hope is a theological virtue by which we desire and expect eternal life and the means to attain it. It involves trusting in God's promises and providential care. Hope fills our souls with joy and peace, knowing heaven is our true home. Hope inspires us in times of discouragement and suffering. God created us to know Him, love Him, serve Him in this world, and be happy with Him forever in heaven.

How can we practice hope? Consider daily prayers that express trust in God, such as "Jesus, I trust in You" or "God, please help me today." Remind ourselves with clear affirmations like "God loves me," "God has a plan for me," and "I can trust God."

Practice turning your worries into hopeful prayers and read the lives of the saints. Ponder or journal about how amazing heaven will be.

PRAY FOR PRIESTLY VOCATIONS

Please encourage and pray for priest vocations.

To aid us in our prayers, we have a blessed traveling Chalice from the Holy Land to enthrone in your home for a week.

To host our Blessed Chalice, please contact Deacon Joe at deaconjoe@stmarymagdalen.net.

To learn more about vocations and events, visit heedthecall.org.

BETHESDA CASSEROLES
NEXT COLLECTION IS OCTOBER 19 & 20

We are grateful for your care and support for those in need. Casserole pans are available in our Narthex.

No time to cook? Consider donating a frozen 'Party Size' casserole from the store.

RESPECT LIFE NEWS

Sign up for 40 Days for Life on Friday, October 11, SMM's day. Bring a friend and register for one hour of silent prayer from 7 AM to 6 PM in West Chester. Go to 40daysforlife.com under Chester County to register. For more information, contact John at JDuff1973@comcast.net.

She Shall Be Called Woman

*Are you looking for a way to deepen your spirituality?
Would you like a program that has no homework?*

Then, consider joining 'She Shall Be Called Woman'— a new program just for women by Paradisus Dei, which brought 'That Man is You' to our parish.

We are delighted to offer this new, free series on Mondays from 5 to 6 PM, starting Monday, October 7, in St. Francis Hall.

Our program is a sanctuary for those seeking to be truly seen, known, and loved as they grow in their relationship with the Lord. And, it follows the PREP calendar, is open to all women, regardless of where they are in their spiritual journey.

We invite you for nine weeks of growth and fellowship.
To sign up, scan the QR code below.

To learn more, contact Patty at pszipzsky@gmail.com, pick up a flyer in our narthex, or visit SheShallBeCalledWoman.com.

NEW! ALL SOULS' MASS WE REMEMBER CANDLE CEREMONY SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2 • 4:15 PM

On Saturday, November 2, our parish community will remember those members who have returned home to the Lord and were buried from St. Mary Magdalen between October 1, 2023, and September 30, 2024, during our annual 'We Remember' All Souls' Ceremony and Mass.

In our Candle Lighting Ceremony at 4:15 PM, before the 4:30 Vigil Mass, each loved one's name is read aloud, and their family member will place a lit candle on the altar in their memory. After the Mass, each family may take their loved one's remembrance candle home as a special keepsake.

SUPPORT! FOOD PANTRY NEEDS

Our parish collects and donates nourishment and food staples to support people struggling with food insecurity in our local neighborhoods. Please consider adding pasta sauce, tuna, jelly, coffee, laundry detergent, or even dog and cat food to your shopping list. We are grateful for your continued support of this vital ministry. We make deliveries to the Media Food Bank, which accepts daily deliveries from 2 to 4 PM. We are in need of several volunteers to help transport food from our church to the food bank. Call Sue at 610-356-3626 to assist with deliveries.

NEW! PRE-JORDAN CLASSES

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 3

We offer parents preparing for the joyful Baptismal day of their child a Pre-Jordan class. Parents are asked to attend the class before their child is baptized as it provides them with the theology of Baptism, explains the ritual and responsibilities, and shares information regarding the Baptismal process in our parish. Godparents are also welcome and encouraged to attend. In general, the classes are offered on the first Sunday of each month after the 11:30 AM Mass in the Gathering Room. Advance registration is not required but helps us for planning purposes.

Please contact Stephanie at stephaniepdavey@gmail.com or call 610-812-5310 to RSVP or for more details.
